

Terms and Conditions for Purchasing a Coffee Machine from La Marzocco Home (LMH)

1. Understanding These Terms

- 1.1 Who We Are: "LMH" refers to La Marzocco Australasia Pty Ltd, its successors, or anyone acting on its behalf.
- 1.2 Who You Are: "Customer" means the person buying the LMH machine and associated products and related services.
- 1.3 What We Sell: "Goods" refers to the LMH machine and any related services we provide.

2. Your Agreement with Us

- 2.1 By placing an order or accepting the delivery of a LMH machine, you agree to these terms.
- 2.2 Any changes to these terms must be agreed by both you and us.

3. Price and Payment

- 3.1 The price you pay will be either what's listed on our website, any invoice we issue or our current price at delivery depending on how you purchased the LMH machine.
- 3.2 We might ask for a deposit, which isn't refundable.
- 3.3 Payment is due before delivery, or as specified on your invoice.
- 3.4 Prices include GST unless stated otherwise.

4. Delivery Details

- 4.1 We deliver when the machine is handed to you.
- 4.2 Delivery costs may be extra, depending on your location.
- 4.3 If you're not available when we deliver, you might have to pay a re-delivery fee.
- 4.4 If upon arrival you notice the machine is damaged or that certain items or parts are missing, you must notify us within 48 hours of delivery.

5. Online Orders

- 5.1 Our website may sometimes be down for maintenance.
- 5.2 We can't guarantee that all products shown online are available.
- 5.3 Online payments are secured with encryption technology.

6. Risk and Ownership

- 6.1 Once the machine is delivered, you're responsible for any damage or loss.
- 6.2 We own the machine until you've paid in full.

7. Warranties and Returns

Under Australian Consumer Law (ACL), you have guarantees that your LMH machine will be of acceptable quality, fit for purpose, and match any descriptions we've provided.

7.1 Minor Defects

If the defect is minor and can be easily repaired, we have the right to choose to repair the machine.

7.2 Major Defects

If the defect is major, meaning the machine is unsafe, substantially unfit for its normal purpose, significantly different from its description, or cannot be easily repaired, you have the right to choose between a repair, replacement, or refund.

7.3 How are minor or major defects assessed by LMH

A defect in your LMH machine will be assessed by the La Marzocco technical team to determine whether it is classified as a minor or major defect. The assessment will consider factors such as the machine's safety, fitness for its intended purpose, substantial differences from its description, and the feasibility of repair. We will of course keep you informed throughout this process so that you are aware of your rights and options and the ACL. We will inform you of the outcome of our assessment and whether the defect is minor or major and which will always be subject to your rights under the ACL.

7.4 Additional Warranty

- (a) Where we offer an additional warranty that goes beyond the Australian Consumer Law, the condition of this additional warranty is detailed in that warranty document provided with your purchase or by clicking this <link>.
- (b) The additional warranty is not transferable if the machine is sold or transferred to another person.

7.5 How to Make a Warranty Claim

- (a) Contact us by email or phone as soon as you notice a defect or problem.
- (b) Provide proof of purchase and details of the defect.
- (c) We might need to inspect the machine to understand the issue.

7.6 Returning the Machine

- (a) If eligible for a return, make sure the machine is returned as close to its original condition as possible.
- (b) We'll cover return costs for major defects.

7.7 When we Don't Cover a Warranty Claim

- (a) The Australian Consumer Law warranty and any additional warranty doesn't cover damage from misuse, accidents, or unauthorised repairs undertaken by a repairer who is not an authorised LMH repairer.
- (b) If you don't use appropriately filtered water and this is required in your location according to our specifications <link> to check.
- (c) If you don't use the machine according to our operating manual <link>
- (d) If you don't have the machine serviced at least every 12 months with a LMH authorised repairer.

By understanding these options, you can make informed decisions if something goes wrong with your LMH machine. We're here to help ensure you're satisfied with your purchase.
